

Vita von James Strock

James Strock served as the founding Secretary for Environmental Protection for California, USA. He had previously been confirmed by the United States Senate and served as Assistant Administrator for Enforcement (chief law enforcement officer) of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. He was instrumental in the drafting, passage, and implementation of the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990, which remain in effect today.

In the private sector, Strock is founder and CEO of the Serve to Lead Group. He serves various clients in various sectors, on a range of energy-environmental matters, as well as in leadership development, management, governance, finance, and other tasks. Strock is a frequent speaker, and is active in social media. Strock is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Author's Guild.

Website: www.servetolead.org